

One Christmas Eve, A stormy night.

Faults in North Pole, nothings going right

Elves are fed up making toys

Christmas Time's running out of joy

Kids believing Santa isn't real

December's losing its Christmassy feel

Comet has broke Santa's sleigh

To ruin some children's Christmas Day

Letters to Santa ~~can~~ have burnt to ash

Instead, children ask their parents for cash

So, All I ask is when,

will Christmas be the same again?
